WASHINGTON, D. C., FEBRUARY 22, 1881. MARY'S LITTLE CALF. BY "KETCH."

Mary had a little calf, So all the stories go, Which she found good enough for use,

But very poor for show.

she stuffed it full of cotton, Beneath her striped hose; Pleased herself, and, for a time, Electrified her beaux.

But walking out one afternoon Adown the Avenue, Her stocking ripped and cotton show'r'd Like snow about her shoe.

To tell how she was mortified A poet's pen would baffle; But after that, most strange to say, She always was more coff-fut. WINDOWS.

" Mabel, why, you dear little girl, exclaimed her grandpa, seeing his little granddaughter with her head tied up, "have you got the headache?" "No," she answered sweetly, "I'se dot a spit turl."

The nineteen-year-old Illinois infant named Coffee who was adjudged to pay a blighted female aged fifty-six for heart damages, has been allowed to settle, the grounds of the complaint being insufficient for imprisonment,

A miss of sixteen in Newark, N. J., lay in a "trance" for five weeks; but a physician sueeeded in proving that she knew what was going on around her. He said, "She is a very pretty girl," and a significant blush spread over her face. A big boy in a country school near Warsaw defied the teacher to make him spell a word. The word was "window," and, to illustrate word. The word was with the big boy plump through it. Some teachers, says the Detroit Free Press, are very panestaking with their pupils.

A Hartford boy has a very handsome double-ripper. It is finished in fine style, with cushions, and has a patent brake, by which it can be stopped in one length, even on a sharp stope. The brake and signal seat have bells attached, and a large locomotive headlight gives warning by

"Why should a red cow give white GeorgiaGs. milk ?" was the subject for discussion in a suburban agricultural club. After an hour's debate the secretary of the meeting was instructed to milk the cow and bring in a decision according to the merits of the milk. It was blue.—New Haven

New servant answers the bell, which has been rung by an elderly gentleman. " Is your | Gold. mistress in?" "No, sir." "Ah! Tell her when she returns that her father was passing and called in to say that all were well at home." 'Yes, sir." Then, as the old gentlemen is about to withdraw, Oh! won't you feave your name, sir?"

A gawky-looking customer dropped into a barber-shop on Galvesion avenue to have his rather lengthy hair mowed off, "How short does yer want it, sah " asked the tonsorial artist. The youth ran his band in his pocket, and, fondling some change, replied: "I recken you can cut me off about three nickles' worth,"—Galessien News, "That's Nothing."

An item is going the rounds of the press stating that "a Virginia family spells its name Enrighty, and pronounces it Darby," A similar phenomenon was noticed and commented upon in this State a few years ago. Mr. Tilden spelled his name Democracy and pronounced it Reform .-Alberry Journal.

THE MONEY MARKET.

Wall Street Bransactions—Latest Quota tions in Stocks and Bonds.

The stock market of yesterday, while not strong, was not weak. The fluctuations were confined within narrow limits, and seem to be governed by the prospeet of easy or tight money in the future. The banks e evidently seeking to produce a scare in the hope of securing a veto from President Haves of the three percent, funding bill. This will not succeed. Undoubtixes will be refunded without the assistance of the national banks if it must be so. It will be a sorry day for them when they throw themselves in the balance against the public weal. From an interesting column of Wall street gossip we select the following: The officers of the various banks seem to be the only persons who have agreed upon the verdict that the new bill is an outrage upon the banking interests of the country. The outry in this respect is as unaninams as is the threat of withdrawing or reducing the banking business is abolished. It is natural that the banking business is abolished. It is natural that the banks should gramble at the new bill; but, like every-body else who has a grievance to ventikue, these corporations are exaggerating the facts. That their position was much better before—so much better, indeed, as to frequently emboden them to embark in very risky speculative loans—cannot be questioned. But their business is far from being unprofumble, even if the taxes are maintained. One of the nost solid and intelligent of the Hebrew bankers discussed the whole question yesterday in the following words:

"Take a national bank with $1,000,000 of capital, deposited in three per cent, bonds. It gets $0,000 per animm. Upon this deposit of a million it is authorized to leach it with the context of the amount of $90,000. The officers of the various banks seem to be the sue notes of circulation to the amount of $900 or upon most of which it gets six per cent, interest. The bank practically disburses only $100,000, upon which it draws yearly a profit of $30,000, less taxes. I am per-fectly willing to carry on business upon a basis of that kind. Of course, they have to keep a reserve fund, but who has not? There is no business in the world that does not reouting a reserve."

that does not require a reserve."

The threat of retiring the circulation is quite futtle. The banks cannot withdraw their bonds against greenbacks. They must pay in their own notes, and this could not be done. ne in several years, the notes being cattered all over the country. Unless they advertise a premium for the return of their notes the process of eiting them over the counter will be necessarily a very slow one. Meanwhile the country will probably econe accustomed to the three per cent, standard, once will adjust themselves to it, and business as well as speculation will become settled upon the new basis. The position of lay Goald is a vertice of country. The position of Jay Gould is a matter of some im oriance to all who deal in stocks, and the following vill be read with interest and many grains of salt: Lay Gould's position in the stock market is the other Any Gottle's position in the stock market is the other great question of the day in financial circles. He is leaded with stocks up to his teeth. He has made many millions during his iniquitous financial career, but he has not one-quarter of the strength necessary to carry his load. He is borrowing money all around. In one bank alone he is known to have piedged 8000 shares of Western Union. Several millions have been handed over to him toward new cable enterprises, Mexican schemes, and Southwestern consolidations. Mr. Vanderbilt is said to be backing him browley, and some yague rumors concerning a little cavity, and some vague rumors concerning a little eck of $13,000,000 have been making the round of visin offices not maknown to Mr. Vanderbit. What make the reason of the great untaxed risking his offices in Mr. Gould's enterprise is a puzzle even to his nearest relatives and friends. It is whisered that Gould has obtained an absolute hold upon the arising out of the true invaridness of the Western ising out of the true inwardness of the Weste nion consolidation. The two speculators have now walk arm in arm for fear that one should disclose or truth about the proceedings of the other. The ass of Wakarsh, Southwestern, and Union Pacific securities which Jay Gould has to carry is simply amazing. To this the heavy lead of Wakarsh.

ornes which Jay Gould has to carry is simply amazg. To this the heavy lead of Western Union and rsey Central has now been added. True, lest of the Southwestern securities cost in scarcely anything at all. But he sufred immense losses last summer and autumn, hen he was bearing the trunk lines, the St.
and and the Northwestern. Anybody who will take the trouble of looking up in Mr. Gould's organs the cancial articles printed three or four months are begin at the difference in the tone of his spirations. He was as wild a bear when stocks ree selling at fifteen or twenty per cent, lower as he epitations. He was as wild a bear when stocks estiling at fifteen or twenty per cent, lower as he now a built. He has, perhaps, a larger and stronger flowing now than he had then. But his followers do keen to be able to stand long by him. Even men keel, S. Grant and C. F. Woershoffer, who are not sell scared, are reported to have given him up. His recent change of front is easily accounted for els builting stocks at the present absurdly inflated bees simply because he must market at least a portent of his holdings, and he cannot do so unless prices a higher and give him margin enough to sell on. Bethird of his holdings of Western Union or Jersey entral thrown upon the market would knock the hole list down ten points.

This old fellows who are screaming "tight money" and oln to the national bank system into the ears of thuid holders, who have rashed headlong and sold their blocks of stock, which the aforementioned bold fellows" have engulfed with avidity. The discontented howl regarding refunding at 3 per cent. tomes from certain houses that have assured their Jacketines and prescribed and fearful that their "pre-lictions" have miscarried, and fearful that their great camen and prescience may be doubted in the future, they "kick against the pricks" and try to make the public believe that the national banks throughout the country will withdraw their circulation and not re-tained at the prescribed rate. This is folly. The hy-positivation of their 4 per cents at 12 or 113 and their affinding in 3 per cents at par will give them 12 or 13 for cent, which they can use, virtually giving them a acutaca and prescionce may be doubted in the fature, they "kick egalist the pricks" and try to make the Public believe that the national banks throughout the country will withdraw their circulation and not refind at the prescribed rate. We are confident that all will look upon the matter in this light, and that those banks which have already will drawn some of their circulation (purely for effect).

As regards "tight immey," we feel confident that our able Secretary of the Treasury will not allow such a misfortune at this prosperous time. It seems reasonable, when we view the question in this wise, that stocks, sympathdzing with the healthy financial condition of the country (which will undoubtedly be the outcome of the 3 per cent, funding bill), will awake from their lethargy and strengthen. The chief interest has centered in Nashville and Chartanooga, Lake Shore, Union Pacific, and Pacific Mail. The principal decimes to-day have been Nashville and Chattanooga, 25; per cent. off; Reading, 2 per cent. off; Northwest, 1\(\frac{1}{4}\) per cent. off; Louisville and Nashville, Michigan Central and Morhs and Essex, each 1 per cent off. WICE-PRESIDENT'S CHAMBER,

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 15, 1881.

My Dear Mr. Paxton:

As one of the listeners a few weeks ago to your interesting and stirring lecture upon the "Reminiscences of a Private in the Late War," I have a strong desire to hear it repeated and a wish that is shared by a large number of your friends who were not privileged to hear you upon the former occasion. Will you not gratify all by repeating the lecture at early day at such a place as may be determined by your friends? Your early reply will oblige, very sincerely yours, To Rev. John R. Paxton. To Rev. John R. Paxton.

Hon, W. A. Wheeler, U. S. Senate:

My Dear Sir—In complying with the wishes of yourself and others to repeat the lecture on "Reminiscences of a Private in the Late War," recently delivered by me, I beg you will accept my assurances of appreciation of the compliment conveyed by the request. I would make the 25d instant, at such place as may be determined upon by my friends. Very redetermined upon by my friends. Very rolly yours, JOHN R. PAXTON. spectfully yours, A LECTURE ON

THE LITTLE HAVANA COMPANY,

Royal Havana Lottery,

Takes place February 17, 1881, March 5, 1881, March 22, 1881. Desiring to meet the very general demand for low-priced Tickets, we have devised a Supplementary Series of Prizes, pased upon the regular Drawings of the Royal Havana Lottery, the amount of Prizes in which are as follows:

1 Grand Prize..... I do. do. I do. do. 2 Prizes of $300 each. 5 Prizes of 100 each.
100 Prizes of 20 each.
100 Prizes of 5 each.
250 Prizes of 5 each.
250 Prizes of 2 each.
9 Approximations of $20 each to the 9 remaining units of same 10 as the one drawing the $4,200 Prize..... 2 Approximations of $29 each to the number preceding and following the one drawing $1,000.

...U. S. Currency, $13,320 In the supplement, as in the ordinary, there are 25,000 tickets, numbered from 1 to 25,000. The same number that draws the capital prise in the ordinary drawing of the Royal Havana Lottery draws the capital prize in the supplement. So, too, with the second and third capital and all other prizes above named.

The 250 prizes of $2 cach will be determined by the two terminal units of the number drawing the capital prize.
The tickets in the Supplement are sold at the uni-Prizes paid in full in United States currency immediately on presentation of ticket.
